

Please join us for the Reclaiming the Sierra Tonight Show

Sacramento, California | April 20, 2015

Presented by THE SIERRA FUND

Featuring:

- Greg Valerio, international fair trade gold advocate
- Mark Nechodom, Director of California Department of Conservation
- Fran Spivy-Weber, State Water Resources Control Board

...and live music by the Sacramento State Jazz Quartet

This link between cleaning up California's legacy mines and educating consumers about the need for responsible mining practices will be featured on the opening night of The Sierra Fund's conference "Reclaiming the Sierra 2015: The New Gold Rush."

Elizabeth "Izzy" Martin, CEO of The Sierra Fund will serve as the host of this talk show-styled event. She will kick off the program with a quick outline of The Sierra Fund's vision for the triple bottom line benefits that mine reclamation will bring to California. Keynote guests on the "show" will address the audience before sitting down with other panelists to discuss their ideas.

When:

Monday, April 20, 2015

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Reception starts at 5:30 pm, Tonight Show starts at 6:30

Where:

California State University Sacramento

University Union Ballroom 3

6000 J Street

Sacramento, CA 95819

Tickets:

Admission to this event is included with Reclaiming the Sierra 2015 conference registration, but members of the public wishing to attend only the "Tonight Show" are welcome to purchase tickets to this event only. at: <http://reclaimingthesierra.org/agenda/evening-events/>

More:

For more information, visit www.reclaimingthesierra.org
Or contact Amber Taxiera, The Sierra Fund
(530) 265-8454 x216, amber.taxiera@sierrafund.org